eFilled with research, commentary and analyses (www.geniusjournal.info)

Vol. 3 No. 2

July - December 2011

“Say it loud; Leaders and Proud”

“Every six months the Journal of Unabridged Genius has a different theme and contributors are able to submit their works online to any of these themes they wish to at any time. This is cutting edge. In addition there is a blog for less formal exchanges. These interactive, distinctive features allow scholars to contribute at any time to past and current issues. This entire process is peer reviewed.”
